Calendar Listing: Fairfax County Volunteer Service Awards

- Who: Volunteer Fairfax and more than 500 community members will honor the 176 individuals, groups, and organizations who have given their time to a broad range of activities and programs.
- What: The Fairfax County Volunteer Service Awards serve as a community-wide celebration of volunteerism. Earl Stafford, philanthropist and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of The Stafford Foundation, will serve as the ceremony's keynote speaker, and ABC7/WJLA-TV Anchor Cynné Simpson will emcee the program. The Fairfax County Board of Supervisors will serve as honorary chairs for the program, and present the awards to the winners.
- Where: Fairview Park Marriott in Falls Church, VA
- When: Friday, April 23, from 8:00 to 10:00 a.m.
- Why: Our community is a better place because of volunteers. The Fairfax County Volunteer Service Awards honor those who make a difference through their commitment of long hours, selfless service and great accomplishments.
- Tickets: Ticket prices are $35 for individuals or nonprofits and $50 for corporate guests. To purchase tickets, visit www.volunteerfairfax.org. For more information about the event, contact Samantha Watson at swatson@volunteerfairfax.org or 703-246-3826.
