Free Volunteer Educational Opportunities - July 2020

In an effort to support our community of volunteer leaders during these unexpected challenges, Volunteer Fairfax is offering a series of FREE volunteer management educational opportunities.

Volunteer Management Boot Camp Lite: An Introduction to Volunteer Management

Thursday, July 9th 9:30 am – 10:30 am

Sharpen your volunteer management skills at Volunteer Management - Boot Camp 101 Lite, now offered at your own computer as a webinar! This training is similar to our popular in-person workshop, but we'll cover just the basics of the volunteer management in half the time. This webinar will include program planning, recruitment and supervision, but will not include the usual activities that support the learning concepts of the other 3-hour workshop. Whether new to volunteer management or are just in need of a basics refresher, this opportunity is a great for you.

Volunteer Management Roundtable

Wednesday, July 15th 2:00 pm – 3:00 pm

Do you lead, coordinate or manage volunteers for your organization? Join us to exchange ideas and share experiences with other nonprofits. We will focus this discussion on Time Management for Volunteer Managers. We will also allow for time to address other current volunteering issues faced by your organization.

Opportunity Knocks? Hosting Interns, Gap Years and Other High School/College-Age Volunteers

Thursday, July 23rd 9:30 am – 10:30 am

As education is re-imagined during the COVID-19 pandemic, some students may be seeking alternatives to fill educational needs, extra time or required volunteer service goals. At this webinar, we will talk about defining, planning, supervising and clarifying what students can and can't do to be a part of your volunteer program.
